Wisconsin Private & Commercial Pesticide Applicator:

Chemigation
4th ed., January 2013. 40 pages

Authors

Steve Tomasko, Extension Outreach Specialist, Pesticide Applicator Training Program, University of Wisconsin

Glenn Nice, Extension Program Manager, Pesticide Applicator Training Program, University of Wisconsin.

Private Subcategory - 109
70 Certified Applicators

Commercial Subcategory - 26
5 Certified Applicators

Note: you must be certified in an appropriate base category before you can get certified in any subcategory.

Examples of Private Applicators

- Private applicators chemigating onto crops covered in the following base categories: General Farm (100/101), Fruit Crops (1.2), or Greenhouse & Nursery (3.1)

Examples of Commercial Applicators

- Custom applicators chemigating onto crops covered in 1.1, 1.2, 3.0, or 3.1
- Golf course employees
- Private applicators making applications (for other than trade of goods/services) for more than 3 different agricultural producers or to more than 500 acres in a calendar year
Examples of Private and Commercial Applications

- Applying pesticides through irrigation water (does NOT include hand-held hose-end sprayers or hand-held greenhouse proportioners)

Training Manual
Table of Contents

How to Pass the Certification Exam

| Chapter I: Introduction to Chemigation | • Introduction
|                                      | • Before the Chemigation
|                                      | • Irrigation System Types |
| Chapter II: Pesticide Regulations     | • Labeling
|                                      | • ATCP 29
|                                      | • Equipment Requirements
|                                      | • Special State Rules |
| Chapter III Equipment                 | • Supply Tank
|                                      | • Injection Pump
|                                      | • Proportioners
|                                      | • Calibration Tube
|                                      | • Anti-pollution and Safety Devices |
| Chapter IV: Calibration               | • Purpose of Calibration
|                                      | • Center Pivot
|                                      | • Stationary Sprinkler System
|                                      | • Drip or Trickle System |
| Chapter V: Management                 | • Equipment
|                                      | • Application Precautions |

Visit the PAT website to find out how to register to obtain a training manual.
http://ipcm.wisc.edu/pat

Last edit: 2/18/2013 3:35 PM